HUD Housing Rental Assistance Programs

There are three basic types of H.U.D. housing rental assistance programs:

1. Privately owned subsidized housing
2. Public housing
3. Housing choice voucher program (Section 8)

1) Privately owned subsidized housing. This rental assistance program gives money directly to apartment and/or home owners who lower the rents they charge people with disabilities, senior citizens, families, or individuals with low income. This type of housing is privately owned and operated, and the rent is subsidized (that is, paid in part) by the government. To apply for privately owned subsidized housing, visit or call the housing property and/or property management office of the apartment(s) that interest you. To be eligible for this program, you can earn no more than the low income limits in the chart to the right.

2) Public housing. This rental assistance program provides government owned and operated housing for people with disabilities, senior citizens, families, or individuals with low income. To be eligible, you can earn no more than the low income limits in the chart to the right. For more information about public housing or public housing properties, contact the following public housing agencies in Jefferson County:

3) Housing choice voucher program (Section 8).

This rental assistance program allows you to find your own place and use the voucher to pay for all or part of the rent; however, applications are only accepted during certain times of the year. In this public housing program, the government provides money so people with disabilities, senior citizens, families, or individuals with low income can afford an apartment and/or a home, owned and operated by a private landlord. To be eligible for this program, you can earn no more than the low income limits in the chart above. For more information about this rental assistance program or to learn when applications will be accepted, contact one or more of the public housing agencies in Jefferson County, AL (contact information under #2).

HOUSING DISASTER ASSISTANCE

Disaster assistance is money or direct assistance to individuals, families and businesses in an area whose property has been damaged or destroyed and whose losses are not covered by insurance.

The U.S. Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) offers disaster assistance with temporary housing, housing repair or replacement, and permanent housing construction. Assistance is also available for critical expenses and serious needs caused by the disaster. For more information call (800) 621-3362 (Voice) or (800) 462-7585 (TTY) or visit www.fema.gov.

HOUSING RIGHTS

The H.U.D. Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity administers and enforces federal laws and establishes policies that make sure all Americans have equal access to the housing of their choice.

For example, the Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, and financing of housing-related transactions based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, and handicap (disability); and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibits discrimination based on disability in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

To learn more about your housing rights, contact the Central Alabama Fair Housing Center: telephone (334) 263-4663, website www.cafhc.org. You can also visit the H.U.D. website at www.hud.gov or contact the H.U.D. Housing Discrimination Hotline at (800) 669-9777 (Voice) or (800) 927-9275 (TTY).

Affordable Housing Properties in Jefferson County, AL

The table on the next page is a list of affordable housing properties located in Jefferson County, AL for people with disabilities, elderly individuals and families.

Table Definitions:

Housing Property = name and contact information of the housing property
Property Management = name and contact information of the property management company, agency or organization

Housing Type = type of housing, classified as:

- (1) Disability (Group home - Intellectual Disability and/or Mental Illness);
- (2) Disability (Independent living);
- (3) Elderly (55+ years of age);
- (4) Family (2+ adults)

"Group home" housing properties are for adults with intellectual disabilities and/or mental illness who need help with everyday tasks, but who do not need full-time nursing care. "Group home" housing properties may not be covered by the HUD housing assistance programs (described above). However, some health or long-term care insurance policies or Medicaid waiver programs may cover costs. "Group home" housing properties typically require individuals to be enrolled in the Medicaid "Intellectual Disabilities Program" (described above).

"Independent living" housing properties are disability accessible to allow adults with disabilities, who may or may not need personal care attendants, to live independently. Check with the housing property and/or property management to determine what housing assistance programs are accepted.

"Elderly" housing properties are for people 55 years of age or older who meet the low income eligibility criteria. In some cases, adults with disabilities who meet specific criteria are allowed to live in these properties. Check with the housing property and/or property management to determine what housing assistance programs are accepted.

"Family" housing properties are designed for families with two or more members who meet the low income eligibility criteria. Check with the housing property and/or property management to determine what housing
